№ 215.

THE 28th being the Czarina's Birth-day, it was celebrated at Court with ſuch Magnificence, as to give her Subjects the ſame great Ideas of the Metamorphoſis in its State, which was begun by Peter the Great Czar, and is ſucceſsfully continued by the indefatigable Care of the Czarina; Her Majeſty went betimes to the Imperial Chapel, and heard Divine Service perform'd by his Eminency Theophanes, Archbiſhop of Novogrod. At 11 o'Clock, when ſhe return'd to her Apartments, the Cannon were fir'd from the Fortreſs, and the Office of Admiralty, there was a Tripple Salvo from the Small Arms of the Regiments drawn out along the Neva, and ſhe received the Compliments of the Ladies, and her own and the Foreign Miniſters. At Noon her Majeſty went into the Room lately built for dining in Publick, which is 60 Paces in Depth, and as many in Breadth, and was magnificently adorned and encompaſſed all round with Orange Trees, the greater Ones ſet in Boxes, and the ſmaller in Veſſels of Porcellane. She ſat with the two Princeſſes at a Table at the upper End of the Room, which was placed on an Aſcent, to which there were 8 Steps, under a Canopy of Gold Brocade, ſupported by ſeveral wreathed Columns of Maſſy Gold. She was ſeated in a magnificent Arm Chair of Silver, which was made for her ſome Months ago at London. On each Side of the Room a Table was ſpread for 65 Gueſts, and the tall Orange Trees which lifted up their Heads between the Windows, and before the Pillars, made the Room look like an Orangery. Over-againſt her Majeſty's Table, which was ſerv'd with a new Set of Plate of ſolid Gold, valued at 500,000 Crowns; there was a large Beaufet, ſet out with Ciſterns, Baſons and other Veſſels of Gold, Silver and Porcellane, and on the Sides of it were two other ſmaller Beaufets, Silver gilt. The Muſick was placed in a Gallery round the Room, and ſeveral Cantatas were performed during the Dinner. The Healths that were drank were proclaim'd by ſeveral Field Pieces planted on the Neva, and by Flouriſhes of Trumpets and Kettle Drums: At 3 o'Clock the Company roſe from Table; and at 4 a Ball was open'd, during which her Majeſty received the Compliments of the Academy of Sciences, who preſented her a printed Ode; and the Officers of the Artillery waited on her with a Print of the Firework that was to be play'd off in the Evening. As ſoon as it was lighted, ſome Fuſees were let off for a Signal, upon which there was a Diſcharge of the Cannon of the Fortreſs, and at the laſt Volley, the whole Fort, as well as the Machines of the Fireworks appeared in leſs than 2 Minutes all in a Blaze. At 7 o'Clock another Signal was given by ſome Fuſees for another Diſcharge of the Cannon, and at the laſt Report the great Firework and 12 ſmaller ones were lighted, after which the Ball began again, and laſted till 10 o'Clock at Night.

Warſaw, Feb. 11. O. S. The following are the Articles which the Count de Tarlo, Palatin of Lublin, laid before the King's Miniſters for a general Accommodation, viz. 1. That a general Amneſty be granted. 2. That the Great Treaſurers of the Crown and Lithuania be kept in their Poſts. 3. That the Military Officers and others, be likewiſe maintained in the Employments they held before the Troubles of the Kingdom. 4. That the Affairs of Religion be regulated according to the Treaty of the Year 1717. 5. That Commiſſioners be appointed with regard to the Eſtates of King Staniſlaus, to whom all Claimants may apply. 6. That particular Regard be had to the Merits of the Marſhal of the Confederacy of Dzikow. 7. That a General Dyet of Pacification be ſummoned forthwith. 8. That effectual Proviſion be made for the future for the Security of a Free Election. 9. That the Confederacies of Dzikow and Warſaw, &c. be aboliſhed. The Count and M. Sollohub, the Treaſurer General of Lithuania, demanded moreover in their Conferences with the Senators and the King's Miniſters, that the Lords and Gentlemen attach'd, as well as themſelves, to King Staniſlaus, may be admitted to treat of their Submiſſion to his Majeſty, by the Method of a particular Negotiation, and relatively to the Confederacies by which they were united. But they were anſwered, that the King could not enter into ſuch a Negotiation with them, without Diminution of his Dignity. That their Submiſſion render'd all preceding Engagements or Confederacies null and void. That all his Majeſty could poſſibly do in favour of thoſe who were inclin'd to make their Submiſſion, was to treat them with the ſame Goodneſs, as he had done hitherto; and that in hopes their Submiſſion was ſincere, he would no longer have regard to what was paſt, and would make no Diſtiction between the ſaid Lords and Gentlemen, and thoſe with whom he had always Reaſon to be ſatisfied. The King plainly ſhews this to be his Diſpoſition, by his Manner of Behaviour towards thoſe two Gentlemen; for when they were at Court on the 27th ult. his Majeſty gave them a moſt gracious Invitation to be at the Feaſt that was kept next Day in Commemoration of the Czarina's Birth-day, upon which Occaſion the Queen did Count Tarlo the Honour to dance with him.

Rome, Feb. 7. O. S. An Accident happened here a few Days ago, of which we are in Pain for the Conſequences, for fear it ſhould diſguſt the Court of Vienna. Seignior Donghi, by Birth a Genoeſe, and Captain of a Regiment of Horſe of Saxe-Gotha in the Emperor's Service, being, on the 31ſt ult. at the Ring in his Coach, one of the Town Bailiffs would have obliged the Coachman to give Way to another Coach, in which was the Son of the Fiſcal of Rome, together with Cordoni, one of the Pope's Chamberlains. The Captain taking it for an Affront, went out of the Coach, can'd the Bailiff, and then drove on. The Goverment being informed of it, ordered Donghi to confine himſelf to his own Houſe; but the Captain thinking his Character, as a Subject of the Emperor, excuſed him from obeying the Order, he went abroad as before, and appeared next Day at the Opera; but, as he came out, he was arreſted, and committed to Priſon: Nevertheleſs he was ſet at Liberty againſt next Morning, for fear of the Conſequences of a longer Confinement. The Captain inſiſts upon it, that the Commitment of him to Priſon, is an Inſult upon the Dignity of the Emperor, becauſe of the Character he bears of an Officer in his Service, and he demands ſignal Reparation for the Affront put upon his Perſon, leaving it to the Imperial Miniſters at this Court, to procure themſelves ſuch Satisfaction as they ſhall think due to his Imperial Majeſty. On the 4th Inſtant the Count de Harrach, the Emperor's Miniſter, ſent a Courier to Vienna, to carry all the Particulars of this Affair, and to bring back the Emperor's Orders. And the Pope's Miniſters the ſame Evening diſpatched a Courier to Count Paſſionei, the Nuncio at Vienna, with the neceſſary Inſtructions for juſtifying the Conduct of this Court, which the whole City, who judges of the Affair by the Indecency of the Fact, is afraid will be reſented. The Chevalier Pucolomini, who is related to the Prince of that Name, has left no Stone unturned with the Miniſters of this Court, thoſe of the Imperial Court, and with M. Donghi, to accommodate this Affair; but all in vain: The Captain will not abate an Ace of the Satisfaction he demands; and the Publick are impatient to know the Iſſue of the Affair. Mean time the Cardinal del Guidici has forbad the Governor of Rome to come to his Palace, it not being conſiſtent with his Eminency's Poſt, to ſee a Perſon who has been guilty of ſuch Diſreſpect to his Imperial Majeſty.

Baſtia in the Iſle of Corſica, Jan. 31. O. S. There have been publick Rejoicings here, for three Days together, on account of the Arrival of the Seignior Rivarola the new Commiſſioner from the Republick. And the Rebels, on the other hand, are as much alarmed. Don Giaſerione of their Ringleaders hearing of his Arrival, juſt as he was going upon ſome ſecret Expedition, turned back immediately to his Quarters. Seignior Pianelli, who was equally mortified at the Joy expreſſed for the Arrival of his Succeſſor, in order to conceal his Confuſion, and to ſecure his Perſon from the Inſults of the Populace, ſneaked away in the Nighttime for Genoa, where, 'tis apprehended, he will make all the Intereſt he can, in Concert with his potent Family, to thwart the Deſigns of his Succeſſor, as happened to the late Seignior Veneroſa, who having brought Matters to an Accommodation very advantageous to the Republick, had the Mortification to ſee that every Step he took was miſrepreſented and condemned, thro' the Jealouſy and Intrigues of his Enemies.

Vienna, Feb. 14. O. S. The Emperor's Miniſter, and M. du Theil, the Miniſter of France, have lately ſign'd an Act, by which 'tis agreed that the Emperor's Troops which are in the neutral Countries in Italy, ſhall withdraw from thence as ſoon as poſſible, and in as great a Number as poſſible, in order to advance towards the Dominions aſſigned to the Emperor by the Preliminaries. Orders are given to repair the Palace of the Princes of Schwartzenburg, near the Caſtle of Laxemburg, that the Duke and Dutcheſs of Lorain may lodge there while their Imperial Majeſties and the whole Court are at the ſaid Caſtle. 'Tis ſtill ſaid, that the common Reſidence of their Royal Higheſſes is to be at Gratz in Styria, which is a fine Town, about 22 Leagues from hence. The Duke of Lorain is hereafter to be preſent in all the Privy and Cabinet Councils, in order to make himſelf thoroughly acquainted with the Intereſts and Politicks of this Court. Both the ſaid Duke and Dutcheſs have made noble Preſents to the Nobility of both Sexes that officiated at the Marriage. The Aulick Council of the Empire have iſſued a Prohibition againſt the raiſing of Soldiers in the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions, for the Service of any foreign Prince, except the King of Pruſſia, whoſe Officers are permitted to liſt Men of 6 Foot in Height for their Maſter.

Ratisbon, Feb. 19. O. S. We are confidently told, that the Elector of Bavaria has ſent one of his Miniſters with a Commiſſion of Importance to the Court of Pruſſia. The Proteſtant Princes and States of Germany demand, that their religious Grievances may be redreſſed, and they alledge, that 'twas with this Expectation that they ſo punctually furniſhed their Quotas to the laſt War.

Bruſſels, Feb. 23. O. S. The Letters from the Flemiſh Coaſt are full of terrible Accounts of the Damage occaſioned by the high Tide on the 16th Inſtant, when the Wind was very violent at N. W. the Water having broke thro' the Dykes, and overflowed the whole Country to the very Gates of Bruges; and the Scheld having overflowed at Antwerp, did ſo much Damage there, and in the Neighbourhood, that they were obliged to give the Inhabitants Notice, by the firing of three Pieces of Cannon, to be on their Guard againſt the Approach of the Waters.

Hague, Feb. 27. O. S. The General de Broſſe had a Conference lately with the States Deputies, wherein he told them, that as their High Mightineſſes had approved of the Preliminaries, by virtue of which his Maſter remained King of Poland, his Majeſty hoped their High Mightineſſes would no longer ſcruple to own him in that Quality. But the Anſwer given to M. de Broſſe was not ſuch as he could have wiſhed; for he was told, that the States could take no Reſolution upon that Head, till the general Affairs were intirely ſettled. They write from Hanover, that it wants but two Degrees of being as cold there now, as it was in the Year 1709. Deputies are expected there every Day from Bremen, to ſettle their Differences with that City.

Advertiſement concerning this Book.

This Maſterpiece of religious Policy was publiſhed, many Years ſince, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookſeller at Amſterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jeſuits, being informed that he had purchaſed this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then ſent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amſterdam, hearing it ſaid, ſoon after, to a Catholick Bookſeller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jeſuits; replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he ſhould not be under any Concern; but deſired he would inform mhiſelf what it was. Being told by the Bookſeller, that it was The Secret Inſtructions of the Society, the good Father, ſhrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, ſaid, that he ſaw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers howe ver thought it more adviſeable to purchaſe the whole Edition, which they ſoon after did, ſome few Copies excepted; from one of theſe it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there ſaid to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.

Thoſe that uſe this Medicine, always know where to find the Author.

IT entirely deſtroys and carries off all Venereal Infection, becauſe it reaches the Cauſe immediately which no Medicines taken by the Mouth can do, and therefore prevents all the doleful Attendants of impure Embraces. Sublata Cauſa tollitur Affectus.

It is to be obſerved,

(For the Satisfaction of all Perſons, who are fearful and doubtful of uſing any Publick Medicines)

That there never was, nor will be, a good and beneficial Medicine publiſhed to the World, without finding Enemies, whoſe Intereſt it is, not only to decry and vilify, but often to counterfeit it; and the better the Medicine, the greater the Oppoſition: Therefore all doubtful People ſhould have Recourſe to Experience, the infallible Atteſter of Truth, without Prejudice or Partiality. Let them enquire of the Sufferers of the Medicine, either where it is ſold, but rather of thoſe who have uſed it; and if they are informed the Effects of it anſwer the Intentions, let them freely uſe it, without regarding what Malice, Intereſt, or Prejudice may ſuggeſt againſt it. Several People envying the Succeſs of my Medicine, have trump'd up ſeveral Counterfeits, and, with a deal of pompous Scurrility, impoſes upon ignorant People; but Qui vult decipi decipiatur. If People will not hear the Serpents Hiſs, let them be ſtung into Experience and future Caution.

To my Friend near Fleet-ditch,
